Twelve Lies That Hold America Captive: And the Truth That Sets Us Free by Jonathan Walton

"The president is not the messiah, the Constitution is not the Bible, and the United States is not a city on a hill or the hope for the world. Jonathan Walton exposes the cultural myths and misconceptions about America's identity, showing how our notions of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness are at odds with the call to take up our cross and follow Jesus. Discover how the kingdom of God offers true freedom and justice for all."

Discussion questions are included at the end of each chapter.

"Mark Charles Breaks Down Doctrine of Discovery On TedX Talk"

"We the people" is a treasured phrase in the United States. Charles demonstrates how narrowly our founding fathers defined people.

Discussion questions:

- 1) What were some new ideas or information for you in this talk.
- 2) How do you respond to the idea that white supremacy is bipartisan?
- 3) Do you agree or disagree with the idea that the United States is racist, sexist, and so on because of our founding rather than in spite of it? Support your answer.
- 4) How would considering your history for seven generations and the coming seven generations when we make decisions as a people affect the process?
- 5) What things could you say or do to bless Native Americans in your community or on your campus?
- 6)

1-3 hours

Silence
